DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-28, 30 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Probst (US 5,738,395).

Probst discloses a container for bulk material having two side walls, two end walls and a base wherein the side walls have an integrated ridge running the length of the wall. The ridge projects out from the side wall and at the corners of the container the distance the ridge extends out from the container is greater than the thickness of the side wall. The ridge is formed in the container at the bottom of a top portion of the container 10a and connects to a lower portion 10b of the container at an angle, as shown in figure 1. This angle is less than or equal to the angle the container is rotated to empty it minus the angle of the material set in the container minus 90°. The container also has reinforcement means 33 on the sides of the walls. The integrated ridge has a first wall portion angled from the side wall towards the interior of the container. The container also has wheels, shown in figure 1 making it able to travel by road.

Art Unit: 3617

Claim 31 claims that the container can be used in transportation by rail. It is inherent that the container of Probst can easily be placed on a rail car making it capable of traveling by rail.

Response to Arguments

The applicant did not file any arguments in this amendment.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
